

Are you interested in diversity, equity and inclusion in our community?

Join us on March 8th from 7-8 PM on Zoom for an informational presentation and open Q & A with

Dr. Lisa Gunderson from One Love Consulting

www.oneloveconsulting.com

Dr. G will briefly discuss the definitions of equity, anti-racism, racism, and racial prejudice followed by approximately 45 minutes of questions and answers.

Please note, you will be able to submit your questions anonymously. In order to submit questions, please be sure to have a cell phone or have an additional tab open on your device/computer/tablet

Zoom meeting link:

<https://uvic.zoom.us/j/87014036583?pwd=L3VIZzJadhWVGVpdkV3OEI0aEZPQT09>

Dr. Gunderson is an award winning educator, community speaker/leader, and an anti-racist and anti-black racist equity consultant and trainer for various institutions in Canada and the United States. Dr. G. is also a frequent guest speaker to various organizations and to K-12 and post-secondary institutions. Dr. Gunderson has a Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology. Currently she is a registered Clinical Counsellor in British Columbia, a former California tenured professor. Personally, she is a member of the African Heritage Association of Vancouver Island, co-founder of the Girls with Afro-Textured Hair Group, representative to the Victoria Council of Parent Advisory Councils, and is a former liaison to the Greater Victoria Police Diversity Advisory Committee and board member of the Victoria Immigrant and Refugee Center Society.

If you have these questions or others related to equity, diversity, and inclusion at George Jay, please join us...

Brought to you by George Jay PAC and the Equity, Diversity and Inclusiveness subcommittee